Proceedings of the VII European Congress of Labour Law and Social Security, Stockholm, September 2002

When my last Bulletin No. 99 came out some of the reports submitted to this Congress were still missing in the website of the Faculty of Law, University of Stockholm. They are now all online, and can be consulted at the following Web address:

<http://www.juridicum.su.se/stockholmcongress2002/>.

The General Reports are available in English, French, German and Spanish.

All the reports and papers, including my summary of the debates, have also been published as No. 48 of the Bulletin of Comparative Labour Relations (Kluwer).

Who is an Employee? The debate on the Scope of the Employment Relationship at the International Labour Conference

The recently concluded 91 st Session of the ILO Conference has held a General Discussion on the Scope of the Employment Relationship. The major problems relating to this issue have been identified in the Report prepared by the Office. I warmly recommend you to have a look into this state of the art report, which is based on 39 national studies and includes very recent judicial decisions. The Report is available in English, French, Spanish, German, Arabic, Russian and Chinese. The English, French and Spanish versions can also be consulted online:

The Conference discussion reached to conclusions, which can also be consulted online at the following Web address:

News from the ISLLSS

1. XVII WORLD CONGRESS OF LABOUR LAW AND SOCIAL SECURITY, Montevideo, Uruguay, 2-5 September 2003.

The Congress will be held at the Radisson Victoria Plaza Convention Center. The Web address of the Hotel is <http://www.radisson.com/montevideouy>.

On Tuesday, 2 September, there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee from 9 am to 1 pm, with an afternoon sitting if necessary. Simultaneous interpretation from and into English, French and Spanish will be provided for this meeting.

Facilities will also be made available at the Convention Center for study groups and poster sessions to take place in the afternoon of September 2, upon request. To this end, please contact the Organizing Committee (see e-mail address, below).

On September 2 there will also be a meeting of Labour Court Judges (in Spanish only), which is being jointly sponsored by the Supreme Court of Uruguay, the ISLLSS and the ILO. The agenda of this meeting will include the following points:

How to speed up labour litigation?

Rapporteur: Magistrate Julio A. Suárez, Supreme Court of the Dominican Republic.

Criteria that are used under case law to determine whether an employment relationship exists.

Rapporteur: Minister Maria Cristina Irigoyen Peduzzi, Superior Tribunal of Labour, Brazil.

Attendance to this meeting is upon invitation by the host institution.

The opening ceremony of the Congress will take place on Tuesday, 2 September, from 6.30 pm. to 7.15 pm. It will be followed by a keynote address, from 7.15 pm to 8 p.m., by our Honorary President Jean-Michel Servais, who will also attend the Congress in the capacity of Representative of the ILO Director General, Juan Somavía. Mr. Servais' keynote address will be focused on Globalization and Workers' rights. A welcome reception will take place at 8.30 pm.

Plenary sittings will start on Wednesday, 3 September at 9 am.

The closing ceremony will take place on Friday, 5 September at 6 pm. It will be followed by the General Assembly of our Society.

The languages of the Congress will be English, French, German and Spanish with simultaneous interpretation. German interpretation will be made available in the sittings of 3, 4 and 5 September.

Fellowships

I have received several applications for ISLLS grants, to help young scholars to attend this Congress. The Officers are now examining the applications. The beneficiaries of ISLLS grants will be contacted no later than 31 st July.

2. Other congresses:

- VIII th Asian Regional Congress, Taipei, 2005
- V th American Regional Congress, Mexico, 2004
- VIII th European Regional Congress, Bologna, 20-23 septembre 2005
- XVIII th World Congress, Paris 2006

Please, refer to the announcements already made in our Bulletin N° 97. Information on these congresses can also be obtained from the ISLLS Webpage:

<http://www.ilo.org/islls>.

At our Executive Committee meeting in Montevideo, September 2003, I would like to receive proposals on the date and venue of the regional and world congresses that will take place in the period 2007-2009.

I have, in addition, received the following information:

VIII Asian Congress: Taipei, 2005

It is proposed that the Congress takes place from 25 to 28 April 2005.

The Agenda of the Congress will include the following themes:

Theme 1	The participation of Women in the Labour Market -- Toward the Goal of Gender Equality in Employment in the 21st Century.
Theme 2	The Impetus for Economic Restructuring and the Protection of Workers' Rights.
Theme 3	The Asian Experiences on the Old-Age Security or Pension System.

The Organizing Committee is planning to invite a Rapporteur from Taiwan for Theme I, a Rapporteur from Australia for Theme II and a Rapporteur from the Philippines for Theme III.

VIIIth European Regional Congress, Bologna, 2005

The Congress will take place from 21 to 23 septembre 2005. The Executive Committee will meet on 20 September, from 9 am to 1 pm, with an afternoon sitting if necessary. Poster sessions will also take place on 20 September, upon request.

In addition to the original programme, the organizing committee is considering to hold a Round Table on Challenges in Labour Law and Collective Bargaining in Central European Countries, which arise out of their integration into the European Union.

The final agenda and programme will be communicated after the Executive Committee meeting of Montevideo.

The Organizing Committee intends to provide for interpretation into and from English, French and Spanish.

3. Consultation on scientific and organizational aspects of ISLLSS congresses (Task force Servais)

Our Honorary President Jean-Michel Servais is coordinating a task force, with a view to making recommendations to the Executive Committee on organizational and scientific matters relating to our World and Regional Congresses. All our Honorary Presidents, Vice-Presidents as well as the Chairpersons of the organizing committees of some past and future ISLLSS congresses, together with the officers of the ISLLSS have been associated to this consultation. President Servais will submit his report to our next Executive Committee Meeting, in Montevideo, in September 2003, for a first discussion. A second and final discussion will take place at the following Executive Committee meeting, Bologna, September 2005.

4. Study Groups

Changes in study groups composition

I have received the following mail from Professor Alvin Goldman :

George Nicolau recently informed me that time constraints prevent him from continuing to act as coordinator for the Study Group on Arbitration as a Dispute Resolution Mechanism. In his place, I have recruited two other former presidents of the National Academy of Arbitrators: Arnold Zack and John Kagel. Their agreement to do this is based on expanding the focus of the study group to specifically include mediation. I propose that we accept their offer and rename the study group "Arbitration, Mediation and Other Dispute Resolution Methods."

Their respective contact information is:

*Arnold Zack,
170 West Canton St.,
Boston, MA 02118, USA;
fax- 617 262-3627;
email- azack@law.harvard.edu*

*John Kagel,
P.O. Box 50787,
Palo Alto, CA 94303, USA
fax- 650 325-4394;
email- medarb@attglobal.net*

*I hope this meets with your approval.

5. News from our Members

BELARUS

I have received the following message from Yaruslau Krivoy

Dear Mr. Bronstein

I would like to inform you that Belarusian Labour Law Association has been de facto established. However, according to the recent governmental regulations activities of non-registered organisations are not allowed in Belarus. The Association is supposed to be registered officially this summer. Victor Ivanovich Krivoy, was elected as a chairman of the Association. There were 17 people at the founding meeting, who wished to become members of the Association, most of them are professors or PhD students of Belarusian universities. Should you need further information, please let me know. I will inform you about the developments with regard to the registration of the Association with authorities.

Our Executive Committee will examine the application by the Belarus Association.

LITHUANIA

I have received the following mail from Professor Dr. Tomas Davulis, Faculty of Law, University of Vilnius:

I have the honour to inform you that on the 18 of June 2003 the Lithuanian Society for Labour Law and Social Security was established. The Society joins Lithuanian scholars as well as practitioners specialising in Labour Law and Social Security Law. The aims of the Society are of a purely scientific character and fully correspond to the aims and objectives of the International Society for Labour Law and Social Security. We have 15 Members at this stage, but we consider good chances to attract more new members (lawyers, judges, higher-level public servants) in the near future. At the meeting of founders of the Society Prof. dr. Ipolitas Nekrosius (Faculty of Law, Vilnius University) was elected to the position of the President, Prof. dr. Genovaite Dambrauskiene (Faculty of Law, Lithuanian Law University) and Assoc. Professor Dr. Tomas Davulis were elected to the positions of Vice-presidents of the Society. Ms. Daiva Petrylaite was elected to the position of Secretary of the Society. See attached the List of Founders and the Minutes of the Meeting).

The candidature of the Lithuanian association will also be examined by our Executive Committee in Montevideo.

PANAMA

We congratulate Professor Rolando Murgas Torraza, who has been elected Dean of the Faculty of Law and Political Sciences, University of Panama.

SPAIN

We congratulate Professor Juan Antonio Sagardoy for his election to the Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation of Spain, at the former seat of the late Professor Alonso Olea.
